VOLUME CVI.--NO. 273. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 17, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves. Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit. Mich

Brute Killed Baby.

One of the most dramatic stories ever recited by woman's lips was that yesterday by Agnes Renoude, common-law wife of Gustav Dinsor, in General Sessions in New York, telling how the plumber killed her two-year old child, Gertrude Hyland, and how they afterwards hid the body in a hallway.

The woman said: "On the night of September 4 we came in about midnight. He had already beat me on the stoop. He told me to go get some beer, and I was afraid because Gertie was there. Then he pulled off a shoe and hit me on the head with the heel.

"I cried out with pain and he went out. Then he came back to where I was sitting at the table, trying to stop the blood from running over my face, and hit me with an iron bar. Then he grabbed the baby out of the bed, carried her into the parlor and threw her on the floor.

"He knelt down by her and hit her eight times with his fist as hard as he could.

"'Don't hit her anymore,' I begged. 'For God's sake don't. I'll take her away tomorrow.'

"'I'll throw her out on the fire-escape,' he said.

"I ran into the kitchen with the baby, trying to get out, but the door was locked. I held the baby in my arms all the time. I backed up against the wall. He grabbed up an iron bar with a hook and a ball on it. He hit me on the head again with the iron bar and cut my head. I staggered, but I held the baby fast. The blood ran down in my face and the baby was making a little bit of a faint cry, a kind of a moan, that was all.

"I said to him: 'Please give me a drink of water.'

"Still holding the iron bar, he drew some water and brought a glass to me. He sat the glass down, after I was through, and came back to me I tried to shield the baby with my arms, but he hit her in the face. She gave one little cry and stopped. He grabbed her out of my arms and took her back in the parlor, dropping her on the floor and hit her three times more. I ran in and fell down and tried to cover my baby up. He hit me again, but I held on. Then he got up and said: 'Here take your kid; she's dead.'

"'Oh, Gus, is she dead?' I said.

"'Yes,' he said; 'she's dead. Go wash your brat's face. Go wash her corpse.'

"I washed her little face, but she was dead—just as he said. Then he told me we must get rid of the body. I said to wait until morning and then we would go to the undertakers who buried my mother. He said we must get rid of the body right away; that if I did not do as he said he would fix me, too.

"I took off her little clothes, and oh, Judge, they were all bloody. I put them in a tub to soak, dressed her in clean clothes and he took her in his arms and we went out together. I did not say anything. I was too scared.

"We walked and walked without meeting anybody. After a while we came to a doorway. He said we would leave her there. He went in alone. In a minute he came out without the baby.

"And we went back to the house. I did not speak, but he threatened to fix me if I said anything. We went to bed, but I did not sleep. I was awake all night thinking about Gertie. I think he slept well."

Agnes Renoude had sobbed when she spoke of her baby's bloody garments, but she did not really break down until she started from the court. Her face was working as she neared the witness-room door, and when it opened she shrieked "Oh, Gertie," twice and fell forward in hysterics. Court attendants caught her and carried her out of hearing.

Citizens' Industrial Association.

At yesterday's session of the Citizens' Industrial Association of America, in St. Louis, resolutions were adopted pledging support to the United Typothetae of America in its fight for an open shop, and approving the attitude of the National Association of Stationary Engineers in the declaration that "this association shall at no time be used for the furtherance of strikes.

Among the resolutions adopted was the following.

"Whereas the Citizens' Industrial Association of America looks with approval upon the investigation and prosecution by Federal and State authorities of certain great trusts of capital, which seek by monopoly and illegal arrangements and contracts to stifle competition, dominate industry, and exact unfair and exorbitant prices from the public; and

"Whereas this association firmly believes that certain associations of organized labor in their methods and practices and in their openly avowed objects and purposes are seeking to establish and maintain by unlawful contracts, by coercion and intimidation, and by organized oppression a labor trust or monopoly of the labor market;

"Be it resolved, That this association hereby expresses its belief that such organizations of labor as in their conduct and purposes are manifestly labor trusts, should be investigated by the government authorities, both State and national, and that so far as said organizations are found to be illegal, they should be vigorously prosecuted in like manner as are trusts of capital, and without fear or discrimination.

"And we hereby reaffirm these principles, which are:

"1. The open shop. Demanding only good faith and fair dealing, it discriminates against neither union nor non-union labor.

"2. The freedom of the apprentice and the right of the individual to have a trade and to follow it.

"3. The right of private contract, with equal obligation upon employer and employee.

"4. The right to work. Limiting the hours of labor, whether of brains or of the hand, is a matter of mutual agreement, not a subject for arbitrary legislative enactment

"5. The enforcement of the law."

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or no unpleasant effect. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.

Mrs. Pinkham gives free advice to women; address in confidence, Lynn, Mass.

J. E. McGAVERY, the student who was beaten until unconscious and bound by wouldbe robbers or hazers at Kenyon College, Ohio, is recovering, but has not yet given any information as to the assault made upon him. He says he remembers nothing of the assault and declares he knows nothing of the Pierson tragedy—that in which a student was bound to a railroad track and left to be run over and killed. The grand jury has not yet taken up the Pierson matter, but the inquest evidence will be ready for today. The Sheriff says the placard pasted on McGavery when assaulted has resulted in keeping the latter silent. The prosecuting attorney expresses the belief that new evidence will be introduced which may warrant an indictment against several members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

ONE OF the difficulties which would confront an Interstate Commerce Commission which possessed the authority to make rates would be to maintain equal rates between the ports of the United States. Paragraph 6 of section IX. of article 1 of the constitution reads as follows: "No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one State over those of another, nor shall vessels bound to or from one State be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another." This section has been construed by the United States Supreme Court as including all ports of entry made by the government. Those in Virginia are Cape Charles City (Eastville), Alexandria, Tappahannock, Newport News, Norfolk and Portsmouth, Petersburg to City Point, Richmond and West Point.

IT IS now said that an entirely new plan for the isthmian canal will be drawn up by the consulting board of engineers. All the proceedings are being kept secret, but it is stated that the plans of Mr. Bates and Mr. Bunau-Varilla will not be chosen. The most important points were settled on Tuesday, and since then there has been only a working out of the conclusions of that meeting. The Americans gave up their own personal views and the foreign members having only their own reputations to conserve, voted for what they considered the wisest plan. The vote was taken orally and was overwhelmingly in favor of the plan adopted, but just what this is has so far been kept secret.

THE teachers of Virginia expect to bring before the next legislature a bill to pension the teachers of the State. The proposition was endorsed by the Richmond Educational Association in May last and by the State Teachers' Association at Charlottesville in July. The measure is to be framed by delegates, one from each congressional district, these delegates to be appointed by the president of the State Teachers' Association. If the various plans now being arranged for securing money out of the public treasury should be enacted into laws the State would have to readjust her debt again.

THERE WAS another incendiary fire in New York Wednesday night which resulted in the death of five persons. It is said that the lessee of the tenement house which was set on fire had recently received a Black-hand letter demanding $2,000. A description of the horrors incident to the fire was published in yesterday's Gazette. The above is but one of a number of similar fires which have been kindled in New York recently in which innocent women and children have been cremated.

THAT THERE are now more pupils of the public schools of New York on part time than ever before was proven by the report of Superintendent Maxwell at a recent meeting of the board of education. There are now 86,385 pupils in that city who are able to secure seats only for short morning or afternoon sessions and many more are unable to secure admission at all. This being the case in the greatest and wealthiest city in the land, what must be expected in the smaller and poorer cities?

THE Chester, Pa., chief of police yesterday issued orders to the policemen to confiscate all cigarettes and cigarette paper found in the possession of persons under 21 years old. The police were also instructed to learn who the dealers are who sell to minors, and prosecutions will follow. If such an order were enforced in this city the howl that would go up would be terrific.

EXPERIMENTS recently made on the Harriman roads show that a considerable reduction in railroad casualties can be secured by rigid enforcement of discipline among the employees, who otherwise disregard orders and signals. This would apply with equal force to every railroad in the country.

MR. ANDREW CARNEGIE admonishes the moneyed men of America to think twice before going into a questionable venture—once of their dollars and once of their names. Mr. Depew and several hundred other gentlemen in these United States should appreciate the remark of Mr. Carnegie.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.

Attorney Clark, representing the Critchfield asphalt claim against Venezuela, had a conference this morning at the State Department with Secretary Root regarding the status of his client's case. The matter has been before the department for over a year and it is regarded there as being a strong, clear case against the present Venezuela administration. It is being considered now by Secretary Root in connection with the general settlement of all questions pending between this country and Venezuela which it is hoped may be secured as a result of the recent visit to Caracas of Judge Calhoun, the special confidential emissary of the President. Critchfield and his associates some years ago secured a concession from the Venezuelan government for the mining of asphaltat a place some distance removed from the asphalt lake of the New York and Bermudez Company. They built a railroad and took other steps to develop their property. Under some pretext, which the company's representatives claim was entirely fictitious, President Castro ordered the seizure of all of the company's property and the cancellation of the mining concession. Under these circumstances the company appealed to the United States government for the restitution of its rights and presented a claim against the Venezuelan government for damages incurred through the stoppage of their work and loss of their property.

The U. S. cruiser Columbia, under the command of Capt. Bowyer, has been designated to convey a detachment of two hundred marines to the Isthmus of Panama to relieve those who have been stationed there. They will sail from Philadelphia December 10th. The marines will be under the command of Maj. Chas. G. Long who will relieve Col. Long in charge of the isthmian detachment.

Congressman William Alden Smith, of Michigan, called at the White House this morning to talk with the President about a local political matter. "If there is to be any tariff revision," said Mr. Smith, "somebody else will have to do it for I am opposed to it and shall resist it in every possible way. I was elected to Congress twelve years ago to succeed a democrat in a great agricultural and manufacturing district, and ten years ago assisted in the passage of the present tariff law. It has brought to the country unparalleled prosperity. Most countries of the world are protected by tariff laws and ours will be as long as the prudent business men of the country have a voice in the matter." Speaking of the German tariff, Mr. Smith said: "Any trade arrangements that we can make with Germany consistent with the most favored nation clause of our treaties with other countries, ought to be made, but we should be very careful that we do not lose more trade than we get in return by hasty and sentinental concessions."

It was officially announced at the War Department this morning that the resignation of Lieutenant Granville Fortescue, a distant relative of the President, will be accepted. In his letter of resignation Lieutenant Fortescue gives as his reason his desire to enter business life. There will be nothing in the formal acceptance of the resignation in the way of reference to his unfortunate entanglement in the Taggart divorce case, which is supposed here to be his real reason for getting out of the army. It is stated positively this morning that so far as the War Department is concerned, no request was made for the officer's resignation. Whether or not Lieutenant Fortescue received a personal hint from the President that it would be best for him to leave the army is not known here.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock is after the scalp of Judge Baxter, district attorney at Omaha, because the latter permitted Bartlett Richardson and W. G. Comstock to plead guilty of illegally fencing in 212,000 acres of government land in Sheridan county, Nebraska. As a result of the plea of guilty, the men escaped with a nominal punishment, the federal judge sentencing them to remain in the custody of the United States marshal for a term of six hours. President Roosevelt is said to share the indignation of Secretary Hitchcock and the latter has presented the case to the Department of Justice. He indigaantly scores the action of the District Attorney, who, in his opinion, should have fought the case to the bitter end and insisted upon adequate punishment. The Department of the Interior has devoted four years to and expended thousands of dollars in the pursuit of these offenders and expected results that would act as a warning to those engaging in the practices complained of on a smaller scale. Secretary Hitchcock will personally urge that Baxter's case receive full consideration and that drastic action be taken if his conduct shall seem to warrant it.

Rear Admiral John Rodgers, U. S. navy, retired, who is President of the board of naval officers appointed some time ago to make recommendations concerning the needs of the various navy yards and particularly the New York navy yard, was at the Navy Department today for the purpose of placing before the officials there information regarding the fight to be made by a syndicate of Brooklyn land owners to obtain from the government the right to use land belonging to the navy yard as an approach to certain reclaimed land in the vicinity of Cob dock. Admiral Rodgers reported that this syndicate had requested the navy yard authorities to grant them the privilege of using this government property and that the request had been refused. The land desired for use as means of approach to Cob dock is greatly needed by the government in connection with its plans for enlarging the navy yard and, Admiral Rodgers says, if this land is given up the government might just as well abandon the navy yard in Brooklyn where millions of dollars have recently been expended for new docks and other improvements. It is evident from information received by the Navy Department that the syndicate of land owners does not propose to rest content with the refusal of the naval authorities to let them have the land, but will take the matter to Congress this year.

The Navy Department was officially advised this morning of the arrival at Cherbourg of the U. S. cruiser Minneapolis, the flagship of Rear Admiral Chester. She will there receive orders directing her to cruise in the Baltic Sea for a short time so that she may be within easy reaching distance of Kronstadt or one of several other Russian ports in case there should be a demand for protection of American citizens as a result of the continued rioting in the Czar's dominions. This cruise of the Minneapolis was requested by the State Department which, while it does not now believe that her services will be needed, deemed it wise to be on the safe side in case it should become necessary for the American charged'affaires at St. Petersburg, Mr. Spencer Eddy, or other Americans to seek refuge outside of Russia.

It was announced today that the President has decided to reappoint U. S. Marshal Henkel, of New York. He is not only endorsed by Senator Platt but by all the United States judges. Senator Platt was here yesterday urging Henkel's appointment. In securing the President's approval he has made clear that he is to remain supreme in the matter of federal appointments in New York. It is believed also to be the first step looking to the dethronement of Benjamin Odell as the dictator in New York republican affairs.

Annie V. Clary was today appointed postmaster at Nerville, Prince George county, Va., vice Sidney S. Clary, deceased.

The races at Benning were largely attended today. The weather was fine, the track fast and the horses good.

These are the kind of people some want to employ in digging the Panama canal. How long would it take them to do the job? Consul-General Sammons, of Niuchwang, tells the Department of Commerce and Labor how they do things in China: "The Chinese coolies employed as trackmen are as a rule listless and apparently lazy. One method of escaping muscular effort in handling a shovel in track grading, that seems to be very popular, is a chain attachment to the shovel handle near the blade. One coolie raises the shovel and drops it into the gravel or dirt while another at the end of the chain pulls forward the shovel blade, usually only partially filled with earth, to the desired place. This device for lazy workmen appears to be a recognized feature of the prevailing method of railroad maintenance along this line. It constitued, in fact, a toy hand scraper."

The police of this city were instructed this morning to go on the lookout for John Krup, indicted for illegal voting in the New York municipal election, who has forfeited his bond there and whose flight, it is intimated, was aided by men higher up in the conspiracy than the alleged criminal himself. As a consequence of this order an arrest was made this morning, but the prisoner was not the man wanted. The search for Krup has not yet been abandoned, the information which has reached the department here being to the effect that he is on his way to New Orleans and well supplied with money.

Fair play is what Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department, told the members of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, meeting here at the George Washington University, the American people demanded in regard to food adulteration and what they are willing to give to the other fellow. The Secretary came into the convention when this subject was under discussion this morning. After a consideration of food adulteration the convention turned to the subject of dairy products.

Wedding at The Plains.

At the Episcopal Church at The Plains yesterday, Miss Mary Bolling Turner became the bride of Archibald McGill Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Grammar, assisted by Rev. Mr. Norwood.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk and real lace, and her veil was caught with a hoop of diamonds, a gift of the groom. She carried Bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Turner, wore point de sprit over taffeta with a white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Misses Francis Turner, Evelyn Turner, Mary Marshall, Frieda Braun, Nina Carter and Ruby Smith, made an entrancing scene in their gowns of pink flowered organdies, carrying white chrysanthemums.

The best man was Lieutenant Governor Saunders, of Mississippi.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Edward Turner.

The ushers were Charles Smith, Charles Marshall, Benjamin Whiteley, Dr. Joseph A. Jeffries, T. N. Fletcher, jr., and Randolph Turner.

Little Miss Mary Foster, daughter of James R. Foster, guardian of the bride, was the flower girl, and filled her role with much dignity and beauty. The wedding march was played by Mr. Herbert Palfrey, of Louisiana, a friend of the groom.

Last night the bridal party was entertained at the home of Mr. Foster, and following the ceremony this afternoon an elaborate reception was given by Mr. Foster, and among those present were Mr. and Mrs. McCanddish, Mr. and Mrs. Todd, of New York; Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Miss Edith Carter, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Grammar, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boothe, of Alexandria, and Misses Lula and Mary Smith, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the recipients of many handsome and useful bridal presents, consisting of costly bric-a-brac, cut-glass, silverware, etc.

They left on the north bound train for an extensive bridal tour, after which they will return to Louisiana, the home of the groom.

Forfeited His Bond.

Something of a sensation was created in Justice Davy's branch of the Supreme Court in New York yesterday afternoon when John Krup, indicted for illegal voting in the recent municipal election, failed to appear to plead, and his attorneys expressed ignorance as to his whereabouts. Earlier in the day Krup's release had been secured under increased bail, a $5,000 cash bond being filed.

Krup's bail was forfeited, a bench warrant was issued for his arrest, and a general alarm was sent out from police headquarters to get him. In addition a squad of Morgan deputies and Pinkerton detectives were hunting for him last night. And as yet nobody has found out why the Eighteenth district was so mighty anxious to get him out of the clutches of the authorities.

State's Attorney General Mayer, who was in court, was indignant at the turn of affairs. Last night he made public this statement:

"Every effort will be made to ascertain who put up the $5,000 bail and who employed counsel to defend Krup. The failure of Krup to appear in court was as flagrant a defiance of law as I ever heard of. The disappearance of Krup is the best confirmation of the statements made by me in court urging that his bail be increased. I believe there were reasons, apart from reasons of his own, why Krup did not appear."

Articles of agreement were signed in San Francisco yesterday between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien to fight twenty rounds or more at Mechanic's Pavilion, between Dec. 20 and Dec. 31.

Virginia News.

The Southern States Association of Commissioners of Agriculture will hold its seventh annual meeting in Richmond next week, the 22d, 23d and 24th.

The Rev. S. S. Hepburn, rector of the Church of St. James the Less at Ashland, has resigned his charge, and accepted a call to the Diocese of Easton.

It is announced that the members of the Court of Appeals who come up for re-election at the next session of the General Assembly will have opposition.

John Walker, a well-known citizen of Culpeper county, who has been an invalid for some years, suffering from paralaysis, died at his home, near Stevensburg, this week.

John P. Wyer, son of the late Rev. H. H. Wyer, of Warrenton, died on Wednesday night after an illness of several weeks in Washington, where he had been recently taken to hospital.

Miss Mollie Michie, eldest daughter of Capt. H. Clay Michie, of Albemarle county, and Bradley Peyton, son of F. B. Peyton, general agent for the Southern Railway in Charlottesville, eloped to Washington Wednesday and were married.

Dr. Luther R. Chiles, former Mayor of Manchester, who has been in jail several days on the charge of performing a criminal operation on Miss Sarah Atkinson, was yesterday bailed in the sum of $10,000. The girl, who is at the Protestant Hospital, is better and may recover.

Joseph R. Priddy, head of the former grocery firm of Priddy Bros., of Richmond, died yesterday morning, aged 57 years. An hour later his brother, Mr. John Priddy, of Hanover, died at the Memorial Hospital, where he was brought from his home in the country a few days ago.

A few days ago Elbert Bartley, a married man of Lookout, Ky., went to Toms Creek, in Wise county, and abducted a fifteen-year-old girl named Cosby. Taking her to his home, he forced his wife to leave. Bartley soon became tired of the girl, and in a quarrel he shot her, the bullet passing through her chin and entering her neck. Bartley was arrested and while trying to escape was shot down and instantly killed by an officer. The Cosby girl, it is thought, will recover.

Virginia Baptists.

The eighty-second annual session of the Baptist General Association of Virginia convened in Charlottesville last night. Judge W. W. Moffet, of Salem, president of the association, conducted the opening exercises and the introductory sermon was delivered by Rev. J. L. Rosser, of the Grove Avenue Baptist Church, Richmond. The body was formally welcomed by the pastor of the First Church, Dr. John B. Turpin, and to this address response was made by Rev. R. Aubrey Williams, of Fredericksburg.

The annual report of the executive board of the Baptist Orphanage, at Salem, showed that for the first time since its opening, in 1892, the institution is entirely out of debt. Number of children received since its founding 272; discharged, 124; present enrollment, 143. The industrial department, including the printing office and knitting factory is on a good footing and paying expenses. The sewing department turned out the past year 2,614 garments, worth $700. The farm furnished wood, shingles, etc., valued at $154, and farm products to the amount of $50

The total receipts from all sources for the year amounted to $18,104.25, while the expenditures reached $19,231.05

Immediately after the introductory sermon the association proceeded to business. The following officers were elected: President, William Ellyson, of Richmond; vice presidents, George A. Schmely, of Hampton; Rev. Henry Wise Trubble, of Charlottesville; Rev. J. T. Henderson, of Bristol, and Judge B. T. Gunter, of Accomac; secretary, Rev. Hugh C. Smith, of Appomattox; assistant secretary, H. Theodore Ellyson, of Richmond; treasurer, B. A Jacob, of Richmond; auditor, J. B Montgomery, of Richmond.

Interchurch Conference.

The report of the executive committee before the Interchurch Conference on Federation in Carnegie Hall, New York, was the first business taken up by that body yesterday. It reviewed the beginning of the movement and declared that there was no intention at any time to invite all the churches to the conference, but only those "already in fraternal relations and substantial agreement as to fundamental Christian doctrine," and it concluded:

"The committee desires to emphasize the fact that the source of the movement toward federation, which has resulted in the assembling of this conference, is to be found in the growing fraternal feeling between the different Christian churches of the country and in the widespread desire for concerted action in Christian work with a view to the spiritual welfare of the nations of this world. There can be no question that the churches represented here are in substantial unity upon the fundamental doctrines of the Chrisrian religion, and also upon the general principles of administrative policy as to the work of the kingdom of Christ both at home and abroad. The committee cherishes the hope that whatever is done by the conference will result in bringing the churches yet nearer in ties of fraternity and make yet more clear their unity in and loyalty to Christ."

Panic in Russia.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Telegraph says a financial panic is prevailing there. He adds that Russia is drifting toward ruin. The gift of liberty, from which she reasonably expected happiness and prosperity, has been transformed by a handful of revolutionists into a terrible curse.

Gold is steadily flowing out of the country. Russians who hold government or other securities are selling out at any price and buying English, French and especially German securities with gold, which they immediately send or take abroad. Yesterday the banks were crowded by panic-stricken bondholders, who frantically demanded foreign money for Russian scrip.

Many intelligent men and women drive to the banks and instruct their bankers to transform their scrip into gold and telegraph to open accounts with the Bank of England or the Bank of France. Several times Wednesday and yesterday the managers of financial institutions had to explain to their affrighted clients that strangers cannot open accounts with those banks without further formalities.

In addition to the outflow of gold, for which there is no export trade to make good, the service of the foreign debt will as usual absorb large sums which cannot be replaced without more foreign loans.

Today's Telegraphic News

Affairs in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The night passed quietly and today order prevails. The streets are constantly patrolled by troops and Cossacks, however, to prevent disturbances and the city during the night was strongly guarded. The workingmen ridicule the appeal made to to them by Count Witte, urging them to return to work and be patient until the government can work out promised reforms. In reply to this appeal, they have sent a message to the premier saying, "We shall resume work when the strike committee permits us to."

It is expected that the lack of funds will lead to the collapse of the strike very soon. In the event of its continuance, the government is inclined to use the most severe measures. Troops are being held in readiness to hurl against the strikers at the slightest provocation. It is reported that in the event of the disturbances in the city the Grand Duke Nicholas will be made dictator.

The news from the Penza district where it is reported that a false Czar has proclaimed himself, is very unfavorable. The pretended is said to be a peasant named Zakhar and he has issued a proclamation setting forth that he is the real Czar of Russia. Ten thousand peasants rallied to his support soon after his proclamation was issued, and the movement is spreading rapidly. It is feared that the agitation in behalf of the pretender will lead to serious agragrian disturbances unless the movement is quickly checked.

A censored telegram sent from Vladivostok under date of Nov. 15 was made public today. It states that half of the town was burned during the recent outbreak there. Many houses in the best quarter of the city were pillaged by rioters and acts of violence were committed against women and children, many of whom were killed or wounded.

Odessa, Nov. 17.—According to reports received here from Sevastopol the situation among the crews of the warships in the harbor is precarious. There are 15,000 sailors at Sevastopol, and they threaten to inaugurate a general mutiny. Admiral Chucknini, commander of the Black Sea fleet, has requested that 3,000 additional troops be sent to Sevastopol to reinforce the garrison there and preserve order.

London, Nov. 17. A dispatch received here from Riga, Russia, today, says that an attempt was made to assassinate the Governor of Riga, while he was riding through the streets in his carriage. A shot was fired at the official from an alley, but missed its mark. The would-be assassin, made his escape.

Accident to a Steamer.

New York, Nov. 17. After a night of terror spent just above Hellgate, fearful that the high wind would drive them upon the rocks and in fear that the boat would sink, 200 passengers of the steamer Warren were landed at Market street and the East river at 5:30 this morning. The Warren left here last night at 5 o'clock for Fall River, Mass., and had proceeded up the East river through Hellgate when there was a sudden stoppage of the machinery and it was seen that the boat was drifting with the strong tide that was carrying her upon the rocks. While the passengers were panic-stricken the captain ordered an anchor dropped and the steamer came to a standstill, two boat lengths from the Astoria shore. At the time the crew from the engine room was coming up from below and a cloud of steam rising through the grating added to the terror of the passengers. For the first hour or so the passengers were assured that everything was all right, but later it was learned that several tubes had blown out of the boiler, and that it would take hours to make the repairs. The boat was in darkness, the accident having put out the electric lights, and the few lanterns aboard only added to the gloom. Outside the wind was blowing a gale, and the passengers, many of them ill from shock, were in a panicky state. It was 2:40 o'clock when the passengers, most of them chilled to the bone, heard the welcome sound given to weigh anchor, and two and a half hours later they were landed in New York.

Horrors of Odessa.

New York, Nov. 17.—The Jewish Morning Journal publishes today a letter from Odessa, Russia, giving the first detailed account of the massacre of Jews. The letter comes from a prominent Russian Jew, who is a member of one of the largest business firms of Russia. According to the writer, who was recently in New York, and is widely known in this country, and who requested that his name be omitted, the massacre was directed by the authorities and it ceased as soon as the authorities received word from St. Petersburg that it must be stopped. He states that not a single shot was then required to stop the massacre, a fact showing how completely the authorities had control over the rioters. The Journal publishes a number of extracts from letters which vividly portray the horrors of the recent massacres, robberies, incendiarism, &c.

The Chilian Navy.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—The government of Chili intends to purchase seven warship to be built in German shipyards. The Chilian navy is to be reorganized according to German methods, and the new vessels are a part of Chili's reconstructed fleet. In carrying out the plans for the reorganization of the navy, Chili will have the aid of German naval officers who will be sent to instruct the Chilian officers according to the German system. German military officials are already engaged in reorganizing the army of Chili, and the determination of Chili to use German methods in her naval affairs is another proof of Germany's growing influence in South America.

The Demonstration Against Turkey.

Constantinople, Nov. 17.—It is reported that the warships of the powers, which will participate in the naval demonstration against Turkey to enforce the demand for international control of the finances of Macedonia, have been ordered to meet next week at Piraeus, the port of Athens, Greece. The vessels will then proceed in a squadron, under the command of an Austrian admiral, to make the proposed demonstration, unless Turkey yields at the first show of force when the warships are assembled.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 25 cents.

THE V. M. I. TROUBLES.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Nov. 17.—Governor Montague and party returned here today from Lexington, and while the Governor is not talking, it is pretty well understood that the trip was highly satisfactory, and that much good will come of it. It is the general impression that the trouble is in shape for early settlement, and that it will be arranged satisfactorily in a short while. Colonel Willard and ex Congressman Ellett, both graduates of the V. M. I., were with the Governor, and took deep interest in the matter.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Baltimore, Nov. 17.—The statement of earning and expenses of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, exclusive of the controlled and affiliated lines, for the month of October, 1905, showing the increase over the corresponding month of 1904, is as follows: Gross earnings, $6,853,792; increase, $672,719; expenses, $4,311,811; increase, $629,943; net earnings, $2,541,981; increase, $42,776. For the four months ended October 31, giving the increase over that period of the last year: Gross earnings, $25,868,514; increase, $2,193,786; expenses, $16,024,188; increase, $1,900,247; net earnings, $9,544,331; increase, $293,539.

Strikers Return to Work.

Brest, Nov. 17.—Three thousand of the strikers of the arsenal and naval dock yard marched in a procession, carrying a red flag, and singing revolutionary songs, to resume work this morning. The surrender of the men was unexpected and has resulted in complication and a clash between M. Thomson, Minister of Marine, and Admiral Hephau, commandant of the port. The latter has threatened to resign if the dismissed men are taken back into the government employ.

Death of the Count of Flanders.

Brussels, Belgium, Nov. 17—Philippe, Count of Flanders, and brother of King Leopold, the heir presumptive to the Belgian throne, is dead of acute pneumonia. He had been ill several days. Last night members of the royal family were summoned to the sick chamber and were with the Count when death came. Count Flanders was born March 28, 1837, and was married April 25, 1867, to Princess Marie, of Hohenzollerd-Sigmaringe.

Threat from Young Turks.

Constantinople, Nov. 17.—Young Turks have sent a communication to the Sultan, warning him that if the government does not punish Armenians who commit outrages upon the persons and property of Turkish subjects that they will take the matter into their own hands. These young subjects of the Sultan say that they will attack Armenians with bombs as weapons if punishment does not follow attacks by the Armenians on Turks.

Anti-Boss Contest.

Boston, Nov. 17.—After the hardest fought and bitterest contest ever waged in Boston, John F. Fitzgerald, "anti-boss" candidate for Mayor, swept the democratic primaries yesterday, carried twenty-one of the twenty-five wards and obtained a party nomination by a clear margin, of 2,970 votes over his opponent, City Clerk Donovan. More democratic votes were cast that were given to Bartlett or Whitney in the State election.

Death of Grand Duke Adolf.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—Grand Duke Adolf, of Luxembourg, and Duke of Nassau, is dead at Castle Hohenburg. Grand Duke Adolf was born July 24, 1817. He was married April 13, 1851, to Adelaide, Princess of Anhalt.

Hearst's Expenses.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17.—The list of election expenses of William R. Hearst, Municipal League candidate for Mayor of Greater New York, was filed with the Secretary of State today. The total amount is $80,206.83.

The Minneapolis at Cherbourg.

Cherbourg, France, Nov. 17.—The U. S. Cruiser Minneapolis arrived here today. Salutes were exchanged between the cruiser and the land batteries and rear Admiral Chester was officially received at the Maritime Prefecture. It is expected that the Minneapolis will proceed from here to the Baltic Sea for the purpose of offering protection to American citizens in St. Petersburg in case assistance is needed as the result of the trouble in the Russian capital.

To Improve Relations.

Liverpool, Nov. 17.—The Post says there is reason to believe that one purpose of the visit of King George of Greece to England is to make an effort to improve the relations between the British and German courts, which are not entirely friendly at present. It is possible that both King Edward and the Kaiser will visit the Mediterranean next spring, and that a meeting between them will be arranged at Athens.

Suicide of a Woman.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 17.—Mary Holzen, aged 50, unmarried, and wealthy, committed suicide this morning by leaping off a high bridge into the Potomac river. She was one of three sisters who lived together. Two men who were going gunning saw what they presumed was a duck on the river and were about to shoot when they discovered that it was the face of a dead woman.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 17.—After its strong opening the stock market showed continued strength all through the first hour. Prices in nearly all the active issues not only recovered what they lost yesterday afternoon, but in many cases made further and material gains. The market tone is based on a great extent on cables that workmen in Russia were returning to work. The feature of the market this morning has been the continued strength and advance in Smelting. The Southern iron stocks were also strong.

No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand, Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that they declared were entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had; and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Horse Show.

New York, Nov. 17.—At no time during the week was the interior of Madison Square Garden brighter or more cheerful than when the visitors began to assemble this morning. After tue rain of yesterday the bright crisp weather of today, seemed to lend new life to everything connected with the national Horse Show and there was a larger crowd of spectators present than at any forenoon session since the exhibition began. The programme for today is varied, embracing all classes of exhibits ftom tiny ponies to heavy truck horses. Among the eight eligibles was Charity owned by Dunlop & Hoof, of Alexandria, Va.

Complications in Finland.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 17.—The old Senate appointed a special committee to prepare for a representative assembly today. Most of the members named refused to serve, declaring the old Senate had no authority. Minister Linder has complicated matters more by refusing to present to the Czar the list of names furnished by the new Senate as prepared by the constitutional party. He intends to personally select new and other names.

News of the Day.

Rumors of a military dictatorship caused great depression on the St. Petersburg Bourse.

Rev. Charles D. Williams, dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, was yesterday elected bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

Midshipman Meriwether, charged with causing the death of Midshipman Branch, will be tried by court-martial at Annapolis Wednesday next.

Witte and the Cabinet have under consideration the exigency that might make necessary the establishment of a dictatorship and repressive measures.

Lieut. Granville R. Fortesque, of the Tenth cavalry, has tendered his resignation. He is a relative of the President and figured in the Taggart divorce case.

Austria denies having promised to support Russia against the movement for Polish autonomy, but should the Polish action become serious, it is admitted Austria might be compelled to act.

Representatives of the principal nations will assemble in Paris November 18 to consider the American proposition for a permanent international parliament and a general arbitration treaty.

A dispatch from Tokio says that a number of unemployed, following the return of the troops from the field, estimated at 700,000 men, is causing uneasiness in view of the industrial depression now prevailing.

In Baltimore last night, before the Eureka Athletic Club, Abe Attell, of California, successfully defended his title for the featherweight championship by receiving the decision over Tommy Mowatt, "the fighting conductor," of Chicago, after fifteen rounds of the hardest kind of fighting.

Because Walter O. Smith, teacher of the Holt school, at Fairmont, W. Va., severely whipped a little son of B. F. Mayle yesterday, the latter went to the schoolhouse in the afternoon and assaulted the teacher with a mining pick, fatally injuring him. Smith is dying in a local hospital. Mayle escaped, but officers are searching for him.

In the ten months of the present year 745 lives in Chicago have been destroyed by suicide and railway accidents. For both self-destraction and railway fatalities the record of all previous years is eclipsed. The number of those who took their own lives is 424. During the whole of last year there were 426 suicides. Shooting was the method employed in 113 cases and poison in 146 cases last year. This year 152 have shot themselves.

S. W. Belcher, of Providence, R. I., who for the last four years has been an employe of the government printing office, in Washington, mysteriously disappeared from his home yesterday and fears are entertained that he has committed suicide, it being alleged that he is a defaulter to the extent of seven hundred dollars. Belcher was the treasurer of one of the several money-lending associations conducted in the government printing office, and his disappearance is the second of the kind in the last ten days, Henry M. Allen having gone away some time ago, leaving his shareholders and friends several thousand dollars short. Allen gave himself up in Philadelphia, acknowledging his shortage, and is under bail.

Three explosions in the Buckeye Powder Company's plant near Edwards station in the vicinity of Peoria, Ill., yesterday caused the death of two employees and serious injuries to two more. The first explosion occurred in the press house, where Long and Hessler, the two men killed, were working. The cause is unknown. The force of the explosion was felt in Peoria, eight miles distant, and the press house was blown to atoms. Hessler's body was found 150 feet away and was picked up in small pieces, while Long's body was blown to a hilltop 100 feet away. The second explosion was in the corning mill, 150 feet distant, and in a few minutes glaze house No. 3 went up in a terrific report. The flames spread rapidly and the large magazines were threatened. All of the men killed and injured were strike-breakers, and non-union men suspect that certain union men can explain the explosion.

On Track of Murderer.

The murder of Benjamin Walker, colored, near Spring Park, adjoining this city, last Monday night—the second which has occurred in this city and vicinity during the past two weeks—has caused much comment. The affair was clouded in mystery until yesterday when a man having charge of a number of colored laborers employed at and near the new union depot informed Mr. James Patterson at the new union depot, that a negro named G. Pass committed the crime. The latter is from Warren county, N. C., and he departed in a southerly direction after shooting Walker. The circumstances in connection with the murder are said to have been as follows: Pass on last Monday night went to the camp of some colored men and asked if any of them knew him. He receiving no answer to his interrogation, walk around some of the men and while standing behind Walker deliberately drew a pistol and shot him three times in the back. Pass went to another part of the camp and told some men that Walker had committed suicide. Pass later departed and is believed to be somewhere between this city and Richmond. Richard Hines and another colored man were witnesses of the shooting. Mr. Patterson, upon learning these particulars of the murder, sent a note to Chief Webster of the police force and the latter directed Officer Lyles to proceed to the camp and make further investigation. The officer secured enough information to corroborate what is stated above. As the shooting took place outside the city limits, it is up to the Alexandria county authorities to take action in the matter. The witnesses can be secured easily while the murderer can be caught provided proper efforts are made.

Suit Against the City.

In the Circuit Court for the city today the case of M. F. Ticer vs. the City Council came up for trial. This is a suit to recover money paid to the city by the plaintiff, under protest, for paving in front of his property on King street. This suit involves the right of the city, at that time, to assess against the owners of abutting property any part of the cost of repaving King street. Messrs. C. C. Carlin and Douglass Stuart represent Mr. Ticer, and Corporation Attorney Gardner L. Boothe the city. Attorneys for the plaintiff made contention that the tax was unlawfully levied. It is one of a number of similar suits and is in the nature of a test case. A venire of twenty-four men was summoned from Fairfax county and the following were selected as the jury; R. C. Triplett, J. P. H. Mason, J. W. Roberts, Everett Triplett, Daniel D. Thompson, Benj. Hunter, Thomas Terrett, Beale A. Howard, Geo. Triplett, Thos. Lyles, Geo. West and L. G. Reid.

A number of witnesses were examined and at 12:30 o'clock arguments on the instructions were begun. The case was in progress when this report closed. The impression around the court house is that the case will go against the city.

He Halted.

Early this morning the police officers on duty in the northwestern section of this city saw a colored man emerge from an alley and act in a suspicious manner and, believing that the man was Jno. Reeves, who was wanted for having shot his wife some time since, commanded him to halt. Instead, the man ran off, but came to a sudden stop when two pistol shots were fired at him. The officers then approached the man and found that he was not Reeves, but a man named Bryan, who gave as the reason for having run when commanded to stop, that he thought the officers were "night doctors." Bryan gave a satisfactory account of himself and was allowed to go on his way.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Harvey Lunsford, arrested by Officer Young charged with interfering with the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department at a fire, was fined $5.

Ham. Gatwood, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Garvey charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $20.

Washington Lockie, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with improper conduct, was dismissed.

Jennie Jones, colored, was arrested today by Officers Roberts charged with disorderly conduct.

Narrow Escape.

On Wednesday night a pistol was discharged near the entrance to the alley on Payne street, between King and Prince, and the bullet whizzed close to the head of a little boy who happened to be in the alley at the time. The sound of pistol shots at night is a common occurrence in nearly all sections of the city, and there is every reason to believe that many irresponsible people, mostly negroes, have firearms in their possession. The penalty for carrying concealed weapons is from $20 to $100, and it is hoped that in future the maximum fine will be imposed upon all, white or black, who are caught with concealed weapons upon their person.

U. D. C.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., held a regular meeting last night at 7:30 o'clock at Confederate Veteran's Hall. A very interesting report was made by Miss Loula Smoot and Miss Dolly Peyton, delegates who attended the State convention recently held in Richmond. The chapter by a unanimous vote elected Mrs. W. A. Smoot to a life membership in the Confederate Memorial Literary Society which has charge of the Confederate Museum in Richmond, Va. Mrs. Smoot was the first president of the chapter.

Good Templars.

Rescue Lodge of Good Templars will hold their meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock, at their hall on Fairfax street, near King. Eight or ten young men will join the organization. The Rechabites and Good Templars are adding numbers to their rolls.

Personal.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Raney, near Kensington, Md., Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Mamie E. Raney, their eldest daughter, became the bride of Mr. Henry F. Lynn, of Alexandria. Following the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Father C. O. Rosensteele of St. John's parish, the couple started on their wedding trip, and upon their return will temporarily reside with the bride's parents.

On Tuesday night at "Clifton," in Stafford county, the Misses Waller gave a delightful supper in honor of Mr. R. C. L. Moncure, member-elect of the Legislature from Stafford and King George. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pyke, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moncure, Mr. Pyke and Mrs. Pyke, of England; R. C. L. Moncure, of Wilewater; Major John Lee and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Moncure and Mr. G. B. Wallace.

Russell Nicholson, son of Officer Nicholson, and who has been sick with typhoid fever, is convalescing.

In the account published yesterday of the fire in this city fifty years ago we failed to mention the fact that Mr. W. H. Lambert, one of Alexandria's most worthy cttizens, is the last survivor of the men injured at that fire. Mr. Lambert was not only badly hurt at the fire, but had a remarkable escape from death by the falling of the wall that killed the others.

Former Mayor and Mrs. E. E. Downham last night celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage by a reception at their residence, 411 north Washington street. The reception was attended by a large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Downham and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Police Commissioners.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held today. Mayor Paff presided and Messrs. Graham and Hill were present.

The attention of the commissioners was called to an account of the proceedings of Wednesday night's meeting as published in the Gazette yesterday, and the sense of the meeting was as follows: "The article as it appeared in the Gazette of November 15 concerning the meeting of the Police Commissioners of the previous night is absolutely inaccurate and misleading; that Mr. Machen was not present at all; that the petition of Mr. Allen for a rehearing was not entertained, the chair ruling that a motion made by a member voting in the negative at the previous hearing, when the officer was dismissed, being out of order. A motion was made by Mayor Paff and seconded by Mr. Hill that the request of Messrs. Machen & Moncure to be given an opportunity to make an oral statement to the board in support of the petition be granted and it was passed unanimously."

[The account of the meeting as published in yesterday's Gazette was secured from one of the police commissioners.]

"The Real Widow Brown."

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep, and you weep alone." You may be feeling blue and in the mental "dumps" on the evening of Tuesday, November 21. If so, just drop into the Opera House and see "The Real Widow Brown." That charming lady will hold a reception, diversified by tuneful songs and captivating dances, by an assembly of some of the most clever comedians and comediennes on the farce comedy stage. And, strange to say, there's a plot too, and that, together with clever acting and amusing complications, will keep you in unbounded hilarity until the final fall of the curtain. But kindly observe this injunction. Don't be too boisterous in your merriment as your neighbor may have made a mistake and thought he was to see a tragic drama. In that case, blandly excuse yourself with the remark that you understood "The Real Widow Brawn" was for laughter purposes only.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Beckham's committee vs. Ross et als.; G. L. Boothe appointed guardian ad litem of the infant defendants, Carrie Beckham, Floy Beckham and Beverly C. Beckham, to defend their interests in this suit, and decree dissolving contract of partnership between J. T. and J. G. Beckham and confirming ex-parte accounts of J. T. Burke and J. P. Robinson, committee of J. G. Beckham, and referring cause to E. B. Taylor, commissioner, to settle the estate and the transactions of the committee in connection therewith and report the same to the court.

Ella Rose Smoot vs. Frances P. Smoot; decree appointing S. G. Brent and E. B. Taylor special commissioners, to make sale of certain property to pay debts due in this cause.

M. F. Ticer vs. City Council of Alexandria; jury and case in progress.

Suit for Divorce.

Mrs. Violet Simpson yesterday petitioned the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for a divorce from Ollie Simpson, to whom she was married in April, 1899, charging him with cruelty and infidelity. She asks that her maiden name of Violet Cook be restored and that she be granted the care and custody of their minor child. The defendant is a resident of this city.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Harriett Vowell Creighton took place from the residence, 317 south Pitt street, this afternoon and was attended by many relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stump. The pallbearers were Messrs. Frank Warfield, Jas. F. Carlin, Park Agnew, Jas. E. Alexander, E. H. O'Brien and Chas. S. Taylor.

Sent on to the Grand Jury.

James Norris, colored, who was arrested a few days ago by Conductor Bell for throwing stones at an electric railway train, was taken before Justice Burrill in Alexandria county today, and after the evidence had been heard the accused was sent on to the grand jury.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," say R. Relief for the Sufferers.

A great calamity almost unparalleled in history has befallen Jews in Russia. Thousands have been ruthlessly slaughtered and many more thousands—men, women and children—are helpless and destitute to the point of starvation. Immediate help is necessary to prevent suffering and death among those who have survived the massacres. Jew and Gentile in Alexandria are responding to the appeal, and it is hoped it may meet with the greatest liberality.

German Club.

A German Club has been organized in this city, and will, during the season, give a number of enjoyable dances, the first to be held at McBurney's Hall on the night of December 1. The committee in charge is as follows: Louis C. Barley, Harry Beverley, Douglass Stuart, J. S. Douglas, jr., Thos. B. Cochran, Arthur Herbert, jr., Eugene B. Taylor, Marshall L. King, Thos. B. Cochran, chairman; Arthur Herbert, jr., secretary and treasurer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It is reported that an oysterman was killed on the Potomac river a few days ago by a Maryland oyster inspector, no names being given. The report says that the oyster inspector suspected that the oyster law was being violated, and in attempting to board a dredge boat to make an inspection, he was fired at by the oysterman on the boat. The inspector returned the fire and killed the man.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the Washington Water Color Club to be present at the opening of the tenth annual exhibition in the Hemicycle of the Corcoran Gallery of Art on Saturday, November eighteenth. The exhibition will be open daily from November twentieth to December ninth.

An alarm of fire about ten o'clock this morning was caused by a slight fire in a frame house, occupied by colored people, on the west side of Payne street, between Queen and Princess. A bureau was damaged. The flames were subdued by extinguishers.

Mr. Henry O Towles, a prominent citizen of Washington for nearly half a century, died yesterday, aged 65 years. Until six years ago, when he retired from active business, he was one of the leading furniture dealers in Washington.

H. L. Philpot, employed in loading barges at the shipyard with railroad ties, in trying to open a car door yesterday had his collar bone broken by the door falling upon him, it not having been properly hung. He was attended by Dr. Jones.

The weather became colder last night, a stiff northwesterly wind prevailing until an early hour this morning. The weather today has been fair and cool.

Vivian V., infant daughter of Mr James N. and Mrs. Louisa E. Nalls, died last night at her parent's residence, 911 Duke street.

A burning chimney on south Columbus street early last night brought out a portion of the fire department.

Mr. George L. Young will have at his stand in market tomorrow fine apples and country produce from his Middle Run farm, Fairfax country.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings of the Court of Appeals at Richmond yesterday.

Singer Manufacturing Company vs. Bryant. Fully argued for defendant in error, and submitted.

Next cases to be called: Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Spencer's Administratrix; Shannon's Administrator vs. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company: Fisher's Administrator vs. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company and Rowland vs. Rowland, being Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 7 on the privileged docket.

Gov. Montague at V. M. I.

Governor Montague spent yesterday at the Virginia Military Institute and as a result of his visit it is said that a solution of the situation with reference to the "oathbound thirteen" has been reached,

The Governor met the third class yesterday afternoon in a body and made a touching address to the young men. They were visibly affected and at his instance the whole class signed a paper which he prepared, the exact contents of which cannot be learned, but from information obtained from several alumni of the school it is believed that it will undoubtedly be considered as sufficient to meet the requirements of the board of visitors. The exact contents of the paper will not be given out until approved by the president and members of the board of visitors.

The following gentlemen accompanied Governor Montague: Former Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard, State Senator Henry T. Wickham, of Richmond; Col. Tazewell Ellet, of Richmond and New York, and Mr. Ritchie, the Governor's private secretary. The Governor and his party held interviews in the morning with the individual members of the third class.

False Emperor.

A false emperor has suddenly made his appearance near Penza, Russia, and already his followers number 50,000 This is the startling report received yesterday afternoon in a dispatch from Simbirsk to St. Petersburg. Penza is in the heart of the vast region extending westward from the Volga, where agarian uprisings on a large scale have been occurring, and if the report turns out to be true that the pretender to the throne has placed himself at the head of the peasantry, the government will soon face, besides its other troubles, a formidable agrarian rebellion. It required a year to suppress the famous rebellion led by Pugatcheff, who impersonated the dethroned and murdered Peter III, in the time of Catherine II. That uprising was started in the same region, on the banks of the Volga.

This morning's session of the American Federation of Labor convention at Pittsburg, Pa., was exceedingly brief. The inability of many of the committees to report; led to an early adjournment in order to allow the committeemen to get to work on the various subjects with which they have to deal.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The Insurance Investigation.

Ex Gov. B. B. Odell, of New York, and Senator Chauncey M. Depew were the principal witnesses at the insurance inquiry in New York yesterday.

Mr. Odell denied threatening in any way to have the charter of the Mercantile Trust Company revoked, and also that he had brought suit to recover money lost in the shipbuilding company, until five months after the introduction at Albany of the bill to repeal the shipbuilding company's charter.

Senator Depew said he knew campaign funds were obtained, and hoped the federal and State authorities would prohibit this in the future. The Senator also said James H. Hyde asked him to try to have him appointed Ambassador to France, but the President told him this was impossible. Mr. Depew favored a public audit of insurance companies' accounts at stated periods.

John Gilchrist, of the Equitable Society, said millions of dollars in loans were made at the end of the year in the names of clerks of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to comply with the law that the surplus should be invested.

Printing Bills Cut Down.

Acting Public Printer Ricketts in an interview yesterday said:

"Judging from the volume of work now being turned out at the government printing office, economy has struck the government departments hard. We are now printing about as much stuff as we did five or six years ago. The amount has fallen off greatly within the last three months, and during my connection with the office it has never been at so low a point as now."

Mr. Ricketts attributed the falling off in requests to print to the influence of the President and the determination of the heads of departments to cut down the printing bills, which had grown to enormous proportions.

It has been necessary in some instances to lay off employes of the office who were working temporarily. This, with sick leaves, has reduced the force, and there are perhaps less men and women at work in the printing office this month than at any other time for several years.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Supreme Court Justice Giegerich designated yesterday by the Appellate Division, in New York, to sit in a special term to pass upon the void and protested ballots cast in the last municipal election, announced that he would take up the matter this afternoon. Judge Parker, representing Mayor McClellan, and Mr. Shearn, representing Mr. Hearst, conferred with the Justice Giegerich. It is expected that the envelope marked "void and protested" ballots of the first election district of the first assembly district will be opened.

Fourpence a Grab.

London possesses a curiosity in the Southwark eel market, which is said to have been held regularly for over 300 years. It is little known except in the neighborhood where it is held—viz, near Blackfriars bridge. Originally the eels sold were caught off Blackfriars bridge, but now they come mostly from Holland and Scotland. They are not sold by weight, as is usual, but by the handful, the price being "fourpence the grab."

A Bird That Likes Pretty Things.

The primal parent bower bird was born with a vain streak. This remarkable bird decks its home nest with all sorts of ornaments, feathers, bits of wood, etc., and when it is in captivity any objects which its keeper may throw in the cage are utilized for ornaments—pieces of cloth, glass and other rubbish.

A Personal Matter.

A LAXATIVE Cough Syrup

THE NEW IDEA THE ORIGINAL
The Red Clover Blossom and the Honey Bee on Every Bottle.

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE HONEY AND TAR

Cures Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.
Cures Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.
For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Children like it.

The Gap In the Levan Rock.

On the way from Land's End, the extreme western point of England, to the Logan rock, just in from the cliff, after you have passed Tol-Pedn and immediately before the road drops to Porthgwarra, there is a little valley, a big grassy nook, with one cottage, a rectory and a church. This is the parish church of St. Levan, a fisherman saint, of whom there are many legends. His path is still seen by the track of greener grass that leads out to the rocks named after him, where he fished the traditional "chack-cheeld" chad. There is his stone, too, in the churchyard, one of those ominous stones which in Cornwall are thought to be the dials of time itself, chroniclers of the hour of the last judgment. The Levan stone is a rock of granite, split in two, with grass and ferns growing in the gap between the two halves. The end of the world will come, says the rhyme, when the gap is wide enough for a pack horse with panniers to pass through. "We do nothing to hasten it," the rector said to me reassuringly.—London Standard.

Land Was Out of Sight.

"Yes," said one of the traveling men who were telling stories in front of the hotel, "I was once out of sight of land on the Atlantic ocean twenty-one days."

"On the Pacific one time I didn't see land for twenty-nine days," said another. A little, baldheaded man tilted his chair against a post and knocked the ashes from his cigar.

"I started across the Kaw river near Lawrence in a skiff once when I was a kid," he said, "and was out of sight of land before I reached the other side."

"Aw, come off!" came from one of the crowd. "The Kaw isn't more than 800 yards wide anywhere along near Lawrence."

"I didn't say it was," said the little man quietly. "The skiff turned over, and I sank twice."—Kansas City Times.

What He Did to "Hamlet."

A group of actors at the Players' club were once engaged in a discussion as to the ability and impartiality of certain professional critics of the drama, when Maurice Barrymore referred to a certain Denver journalist who was widely known for his dramatic criticisms. "Hayward," said Mr. Barrymore, "was certainly one of the ablest of them. He wrote most learnedly, with the keenest analysis of every phase of the actor's art, and, above all, with no little wit. I am just reminded of what was perhaps the briefest dramatic criticism ever penned. It will probably outlive everything else Hayward did. It ran about as follows:

"'George C. Miln, the preacher-actor, played "Hamlet" at the Tabor Grand Opera House last night. He played it till 12 o'clock.'"—Harper's Weekly.

The Hen Bird's Duty.

In his subsection on "modifications" of types of birds and animals Sir John Lubbock tells us of a particular crow in New Zealand where the male and female differ widely as to the structure of their bills. The male bird has a bill, stout and strong, adapted to cutting and digging into a tree, but he is deficient in that horny pointed tongue which would permit him to pierce the grub and draw it out. The hen bird has, however, an elongated and straight bill, "and when the cock has dug down to the burrow the hen inserts her long bill and draws out the grub, which they divide between them, a very pretty illustration of the wife as a helpmate to the husband."

An Old Freedom Notice.

On April 26, 1860, a Maine newspaper contained the following notice: "Freedom Notice.—For a valuable consideration I have this day relinquished to my son, Hiram S. Maxim, his time during his minority. I shall claim none of his earnings or pay debts of his contracting after this date. Isaac Maxim. Witness, D. D. Flynt, Abbot. April 13, 1860." The lad who was given his liberty developed into Sir Hiram Maxim of London, England, the inventor of rapid fire guns and airships.

Shibboleth.

Shibboleth is a word frequently used in politics, though it may be doubted whether many politicians know the history of it. Curiously enough, this Hebrew word really means "an ear of corn" as well as a "river," but its significance for moderns arises from the fact that it was employed as a test to distinguish the Ephraimites from the Gileadites, the former being unable to pronounce the "sh" sound.

Chewing Gum For Nosebleed.

A celebrated physician has claimed in one of his lectures that the "best remedy" for nose bleed is a vigorous motion of the jaws as in the act of chewing. In the case of a child he recommends giving a wad of paper to chew, as the rapid working of the jaws stops the flow of blood. But why not try chewing gum instead of paper?—Western Medical Review.

Contrary.

Little Clarence (a youthful Solomon)—Papa, nobody can never tell what a woman will do next, can they? Father—No, my son; and if you could tell it would not be advisable for you to do so, for if you did she would be sure to do something else.

A Matter of Taste.

"What," says an inquisitive young lady, "is the most popular color for a bride?"

We may be a little particular in these matters, but we should prefer a white one.

Early and provident fear is the mother of safety.—Burke.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Shocks From False Teeth.

"False teeth have been known to generate electricity in the mouth and shock their wearer painfully," said a dentist. "Only last week a gentleman came to me and said he feared he was getting a cancer on his tongue. 'Such severe shooting pains attack me,' he said, 'that often I utter loud oaths in the most unseemly places—at teas, before the minister, and so on. It is like knife thrusts. Do you think I am going to lose my tongue?' I found that two different metals had been used in fixing the poor man's false teeth. These metals, combining with the saliva, had formed a small battery. Electricity generated in the battery continually, and shock after shock was administered to the tongue. I painted the metal with an insulating varnish. Thereafter the man had no more trouble."—New York Press.

Origin of Dominos.

Two monks who had been committed to a lengthy seclusion beguiled the dreary hours of their confinement with a game played by showing each other small flat stones marked with black dots. By a preconcerted arrangement the winner would inform the other player of his victory by repeating in an undertone the first line of the vesper prayer. In process of time the two monks managed to complete the set of stones and to perfect the rules of the game, so that when the term of incarceration had expired the game was so interesting that it was generally adopted by all the inmates of the monastery as a lawful pastime. It very soon spread from town to town and became popular throughout Italy, and the first line of the vespers was reduced to the single word "Domino," by which name the game has ever since been known.

Reasoning Power of Animals.

Men apparently conceive ideas from a "clear sky," but such genius could not manifest itself were not the mind already highly cultivated by much conscious effort—reasoning—and experience. On the other hand, animals and small children become conscious of much knowledge by merely witnessing the intelligent movements of others, and in time, without thought or effort on their part, they suddenly discover that they also are competent to do the same thing, or, in other words, they begin to imitate. It is a general impression among psychologists that animals probably do not reason; they have no ideas as we have.—A. F. Shore in Scientific American.

Won't Eat Possum.

A human being is a queer animal after all. We eat possums and pay fancy prices for them, yet a vulture will not touch one. During a long season of snow some years ago a farmer said the buzzards in his locality were almost starved, and to test the matter he killed a possum and put it out where he could be easily found. The vultures would not touch it, though they examined the carcass. Not satisfied, the farmer cooked another possum up brown and spread it out, but the buzzards declined the feast.—Greensboro (Tenn.) Record.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and save his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc. The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
